FINE RESIDENCE FOR PARK AVENUE CORNER. The Seven Story Branden Aparment Hous

at Seventy-third Street Will Be Torn Down to Make Way for a Dwelling An interesting development in the real tion looking to the demolition of a Park venue apartment house in order to pro vide room for a costly private dwelling.

Last spring the Alliance Realty Company bought the old style seven story Brandon apartment house at the northeast corner of Park avenue and Seventy-third street Later the company acquired an adjoining plot, which if united to the site of the Brandon would make available a piece of ground big enough to be improved with tall fireproof apartment house.

Instead of devoting its holding to this purpose the company sold yesterday 27x96 feet at the cerner to a buyer who will erect there a handsome private dwelling. This means of course that the re-mainder of the company's property will be used for private residences as sites. There has been some doubt whether Park avenue at this point would develop into private house or an apartment house
